

The ministry provided by KLOVE is unsurpassed and a huge need in my community as well as all communities. The message of Jesus' love and need for Him in our lives has been softened if not muted in every possible way; if this radio broadcast is not available, it would be a detriment to our society as a whole. The message of Jesus is needed to regain society back to the traditions it was founded upon.